CHRISTMAS NEWSLETTER

That some no longer serve with the colours does not matter,
What does matter is that we are all of us Scots Guardsmen.
Bound together in the Queen's service until we die by a chain,
the links of which are invisible but which are as strong as steel:
Constantly striving, in all that we do, to maintain the high traditions of loyalty and devotion to duty upon which the Scots Guards are founded
General Sir Michael Gow GCB Palace of Holyrood 1965

ROYAL HOSPITAL CHELSEA ~ IN PENSIONER COLIN PATERSON

I'm always amazed and interested watching the busy social life of old friend Colin Paterson formerly Left Flank and B Company in the 1st Battalion from 1969. Two of his recent social activities:

Colin reports he had a wonderful night at The Guards Chapel when he performed a duo with the international opera singer Friederike Krum.

Colin says it came about when she heard him singing earlier at a church service and asked him. After 2 test sessions it was ready to go. Also attending HRH Prince Michael of Kent who congratulated Colin on his performance. Rowen Atkinson was also there.

He also took up a 3 day arts (Bust Making) course with The Soldiers Arts Academy SAA. Colin said "I was surprised at the outcome myself, it's no one in particular just formed out of my own imagination"

PIPE MAJOR MITCHELL AT 10 DOWNING STREET

Pipe Major Mitchell was invited to Downing Street, where they celebrated St. Andrews Day. He performed for the Prime Minister and other distinguished guests. Following his performance the Pipe Major was warmly welcomed to stay and enjoy the evening - a true honour in such a historic setting.

THE ARMY CADET FORCE ~ A GREAT YOUTH ORGANISATION & OVER THE YEARS A MAJOR STEPPING STONE TO MANY SUCCESSFUL CAREERS IN THE SCOTS GUARDS.

The Cadets of 5 Platoon Scots Guards ACF recently held their annual awards night at their affiliated RBLs Scotland branch in Forth when they were recognised for their 2025 achievements.

During the evening parents, guardians, family and friends were updated on all the cadets achievements through out the year; including Army Cadet Syllabus Star Awards, Promotions, DofE Awards, SQA and BTEC Awards.

The night reflected on this years notable achievements, Cdt RSM Jørgensen on completing his Master Cadet Course, being appointed as the top cadet of Glasgow and Lanarkshire Bn ACF and as the Lord Lieutenant Cadet for Lanarkshire.

Cdts Fergus and Murray representing Scottish cadets at the National Cadet Rugby competing where they were part of the team that were runners up in both the Junior Male and Female rugby teams.

Three cadets, Cdt Amos, Baxter & Bowers were awarded their 1 Star Awards and Cdt LCpl Frame was promoted to Cdt LSgt recognising all her hard work withing the detachment. Cdt LCpl Garrett and Cdt LSgt Frame both received their DofE Bronze awards and Saltire awards (25 and 50 hours respectively).

Highlights of the night were the annual awards for drill, shooting, sports and NCO.

As always the most anticipated presentations were for Best NCO and Best Cadet of the Detachment as these reflect on the cadets efforts during the year, with the Best Cadet award being voted by the cadets in the detachment.

A full list of presentations are:

Drill - Cdt RSM Jørgensen

Air Rifle - Cdt RSM Jørgensen

GP A2 - Cdt LCpl Begg

Sports - Cdt Fergus & Murray

Most Improved - Cdt Hutchinson

NCO - Cdt LSgt Waugh

Cadet - Cdt Sgt Gough

The awards were presented by CSgt Chapman (centre) ~ Scots Guards Lead Coordinator (Regimental Support Team)
